

Linda Astute

Linda earned a Bachelor of Science degree in social work, and worked for Buckner Children's Services as a staff trainer in the early 90's before deciding to stay home to raise her children full time. In 2010 Linda graduated from the University of Dallas with a master's in Theological Studies and became the Director of Adult Faith Formation for her parish in Amarillo. In 2013 Linda began the Christian Spirituality Program at Creighton University, graduating in 2015 with a certificate in Spiritual Direction and Directed Retreats. Linda has been the Executive Director of the Bishop DeFalco Retreat and Conference Center since 2014 where she leads workshops, retreats and offers spiritual direction. Linda continues her studies at Creighton University, where she will graduate with a Master of Arts of Christian Spirituality.
